What does the Sensory Support Service do?

Our aim is that children and young people have the best opportunities in life to thrive, succeed, reach their aspirations and have the best possible quality of life.

To achieve this we will work with you soon after diagnosis to give information, to listen to you, your concerns and hopes and to help you promote your child's development. We will also work within early years' settings and schools and collaborate with a range of other professionals.

The Sensory Support Service employs high quality specialist teachers and other professionals who have the knowledge and experience in working with children and young people with sensory impairment.

Our Teachers hold mandatory qualifications in the field and all staff are up to date with new developments and technologies.

The Sensory Support Service runs a range of family sessions for early years' children.....
